EDITOR WHO KNOWS CONDITIONS SAYS TENER WILL CARRY ALLEGHENY COUNTY

John O'Donnell, of Uniontown Morning Herald, Makes Election Prognostications

SPEAKS OF STRAW VOTE

Little Reliance Can be Placed on Method of Obtaining Idea of the Real Sentiment of People

Commenting upon the futility and misleading character of straw votes by Pittsburg newspapers, Editor John O'Donnell of the Uniontown Herald, who was for six years managing editor of the Pittsburg Dispatch, and therefore well acquainted with political conditions in Allegheny county, says:

"Including policemen, firemen and city and county employees the payroll in Allegheny county will total over 10,000. Civil service regulations to the contrary notwithstanding, it is fair to assume that 90 per cent. of this payroll will vote the regular Republican ticket. It is also fair to assume that the collateral payroll vote will amount to as much more, thus giving the Republican ticket a total payroll vote of about 20,000 and this is a vote that is not getting representation in the straw predictions.

"In Pittsburg and Allegheny county there are political organizations of great effectiveness in elections, but it takes election day to demonstrate just what they can do. Straw votes utterly fail to show the extent of their political prowess.

"The total vote in Allegheny county at the last Presidential election was 121,905. The total vote in the same county at the next election will scarcely be over 100,000. With 20 per cent of this vote represented by the direct and collateral Republican payroll vote cast for the Republican ticket, and with 10,000 more added as the result of effective political organization, the finish of Mr. Berry in Allegheny county won't be difficult to figure out, in view of the fact that in a total straw vote of 8,946. Berry leads with a margin of but 29. Four years ago, in Allegheny county, Stuart had a plurality of 29,815 over Lewis Emery, who was on the Democratic, Lincoln Republican and three other tickets. In that year there was a total vote cast in that county of 92,755. Mr. Tener will carry Allegheny county this year by a plurality of 30,000 in round numbers."

FIRST ATTRACTION ON THURSDAY NIGHT

The first entertainment of the Citizens Lecture Course attractions takes place at School Hall Thursday evening, when Ross Crane will appear. Crane is a versatile entertainer. He mimes, plays and draws cartoons, then for a change in the monotony, plays the piano or recites. The entertainment, as well as all others of the season will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. All the seats in School Hall have been reserved and even chairs are called into requisition. Standing room promises to be at a premium.

Hallowe'en Is Not Here Yet

Burgess Risbeck Tells Celebrators Not to Try to Hasten Things

To the Public:

As the local committee has arranged to give the fun loving public a good time on Hallowe'en night, when all will be privileged to masquerade, parade the streets and indulge in harmless public merriment, all vandalism and mischief, both before and on that night, will not be tolerated. Any one marking windows with soap or chalk, ringing door bells, tapping on windows, jumping and rapping on porches, and otherwise annoying people will be promptly arrested and dealt with according to law. The police have stringent orders to arrest all such offenders.

(Signed)

Geo. W. Risbeck, Burgess.

LAUGH AT ACHESON

Farmers of Lone Pine District for J. K. Tener

"Tener sentiment is strong among the farmers of the Lone Pine vicinity," said a man this morning who last week spent some time in that neighborhood. "The Washington Observer has been making great claims that Berry is the favorite, but the farmers laugh at such statements. The Observer is largely circulated through the region and eagerly read, but not for political reasons. The campaign talk in its columns is merely a source of amusement and is not for a moment taken seriously. In the Marianna and Scenery Hill district Mr. Tener is also very strong."

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE BY FIRE

A small fire occurred at Donora last night in two rooms of the Whiteledge building on McKean avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets, which did damage to the extent of two hundred dollars. When the fire was discovered, it was impossible to get the rooms opened and smoke and flames worked havoc before the volunteer firemen were able to extinguish the blaze.

MASQUERADE SOCIAL

Dont' forget the annual masquerade social to be given this evening by the young people of St. Mary's Episcopal church. Refreshments will be served free. Admission 10 and 15 cents.

Hallowe'en

All persons wishing to mask will find a complete line of funnies at Night's Book store.

STRAW VOTE SHOWS SENTIMENT FOR TENER NEARLY FOUR TO ONE

Dispatch Takes Straw Vote in Charleroi---Key-stoners Fold Their Votes, Tener Voters Openly for Him

A man representing the Pittsburg Dispatch, was in Charleroi some time last evening and took a straw vote in some of the business houses on McKean avenue and Fallowfield avenues and from pedestrians on Fifth street and McKean avenue with the result that Hon. J. K. Tener was shown to be in the lead among the few who voted. An interesting feature was noted that whereas the Tener men calmly marked their ballots and dropped them into the box unfolded, the Berry men sheepishly folded theirs concealing their sentiment from the onlookers.

RIVER IS SATURATED WITH BOILER DESTROYING ACID

In Worse Condition Now Than It Has Been For Months as a Result of Discharge From Mines

BOATS SENT TO REPAIR SHOPS OFTEN

At no time this year has the river been in a worse condition from acid than it is at present, and the low water is to blame. The water is green from the effects of the large amount of acid contained in it.

The average stage during the past three months has been about nine feet one inch. There is little water going over the dams and what is in the pools is being saturated more and more with acid with which comes from the mines. This is especially destructive to boilers and such is the extent of the damage done that it is necessary that repairs be made nearly every ten days or two weeks. In this way the expense is greatly increased to the companies operating boats along the river.

BANQUET WILL BE HELD NEXT MONTH

Postponed Affair of Douglas Alumni Event of Near Future

Invitations were sent out today by a social committee of Douglas College Alumni association for a banquet to be held at the Hotel Monier on November 10. The banquet was to have been held last June, but owing to the sudden death of one of the members of the association, Leroy A. Hamilton, of Roscoe, was postponed. A program is being arranged to be rendered by members of the association in connection with the affair. One hundred and ten invitations have been issued. Those of the social committee are: Miss Clara Beigel, Miss Eva Louttit and Miss Velma Carothers. The alumni association officers are: President, J. Russell Carroll; vice president, John Kline; secretary, Frank Thompson; treasurer, Miss May Barth.

Dunlevy

The Dunlevy team will hold a masquerade party Saturday evening October 29, in the Dunlevy Hall. Valuable prizes will be given the couple wearing the best costume.

Miss Myrtle Hall of Black Diamond was visiting friends here Sunday.

Miss Clara Sneed of Speers was a Sunday visitor at the home of Miss Frances Colvin.

Miss Nellie Griffiths of this place is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Jones at Allentown.

Edward Saunders has returned to work after a week's suspension.

Wigs and Beards

At Night's Book store for Hallowe'en.

FEW CONTAGIOUS DISEASES HERE

Quarantine Signs Recently Taken Down by Authorities

The number of contagious diseases in Charleroi has diminished somewhat during the past week, until the total number now quarantined is four. There is one case of diphtheria, two of scarlet fever and one of measles. There are three cases of typhoid in the borough. Three quarantine signs were removed by Health Officer William Darby this week.

Comic Faces

May be had for Hallowe'en at Night's Book store.

Council Meeting

Council is scheduled to meet tonight in called session to finish up the business of the month.

E. R. Clawson of Brodhead, a representative of a large Wisconsin matting firm, and who is known as one of the oldest traveling men on the road was a visitor last night in Charleroi with his nephew, J. L. Reeves and niece, Mrs. E. M. Chalfant.

FOR SALE—A barber shop between Seventh and Eighth street on Fallowfield avenue, Charleroi. A bargain. It will pay to investigate. C. D. Palma, 707 Fallowfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Engler, of Pueblo, Col., who have been visiting in Charleroi, or some time, left today for Chicago, Ill., where they will visit some time before going home.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. L. Collins, of Washington avenue, a son.

Building Brisk On Lock Hill

Many Structures Erected During the Past Summer At That Place

During the past summer North Charleroi has been the scene of much building operations, the number of structures erected, beating out Charleroi. On the hill, known as Lock view, there were 13 houses built this summer and two or three are going up now. In the down town section there was little going on in the way of new buildings, but many improvements were made there among which was the laying of considerable cement sidewalk. Many lots are being sold in the hill district at North Charleroi and it is proving a desirable residence section.

BUSINESS INCREASES

Railroad Benefitted By Erection of Bridge

The Monessen-Charleroi bridge has been the means of increasing trade to the Pennsylvania railroad from their North Charleroi station, and likewise to the Adams Express company, who since the bridge was built has been conducting a service in Monessen. The freight handling at North Charleroi by the Pennsylvania railroad since the erection of the bridge, has increased two fold or more. The Adams Express company has a Monessen wagon and an agent at that place, all the trade being handled from North Charleroi.

Funeral Thursday

The funeral of Chester Adison Clark, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clark, of 922 McKean avenue, will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery. The parents and three sisters survive.

Rummage Sale

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold their fourth annual Rummage Sale in the store room, corner of Fourth street and McKean avenue. Hundreds of useful articles will be on sale at very reasonable prices. The sale lasts for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Hallowe'en Maskers

May just find what they want to complete their costumes at the Rummage Sale, 401 McKean avenue, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

Euchre Tonight

The C. T. A. U. will tonight hold a euchre in the P. H. C. Hall, and from the interest being manifested, a good attendance is expected.

Rumored That Appropriation Has Been Made for Building New Furnaces

WORK TO BEGIN SHORTLY

Contemplated Improvements Will Mean Much to Industrial Community of Which This Is Center

For the purpose of making extensive additions and improvements to their Monessen plant, the plans for which are in the hands of the architect, it is said, an appropriation of $5,000,000 has been authorized by the Pittsburg Steel company. The money is to be forthcoming shortly, and according to rumor the work will start shortly. For a year or so the officials at Monessen have been endeavoring to secure the appropriation granted, and only day before yesterday, it is understood, were these efforts finally crowned with success. The additions among which will be four blast furnaces, will mostly be installed at the lower end of the Monessen mill, and operated in connection with the billet, wire and rod mill, and the other plants there. Improvements it is said will be made throughout the entire plant.

The new additions will mean much to Monessen and vicinity, although not many new men will be employed there in the operation of them. The move to increase the plant to the extent of $5,000,000 is an index to the prosperous conditions generally, and the confidence of continued prosperity.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR ROSCOE BOROUGH

The Roscoe council is asking for bids for the laying of 800 feet of stone sidewalk in the borough, on Good street, together with 100 feet of crossing stone. The contract is to be let on November 2, and it is understood that the work is to be done as soon as possible. The move is one being made by Roscoe for the improvement of the borough.

North Charleroi

Miss Ada Wolfe is in Pittsburg this week attend the National Luther League convention.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cooper a son.

Miss Hazel Watson has been confined to her home the past few days by illness.

John Anderson is installing a new bowling alley and pool room. There will be two alleys and several pool tables.

Mrs. Mary Hornbake of California, who has been spending sometime in North Charleroi as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Crouse, left yesterday for Washington, D. C., and later will continue to Florida, to spend a part of the winter.

Birthday Party

In honor of his birthday William Coles, of Wood Run was tendered a surprise party last night. Charleroi people attended. The young man was presented with valuable and useful presents.

A Clear Case

The Uniontown Herald pertinently
remarks: "If the Public Utilities
company were a fraudulent concern
when Mr. Tener served as its president, is it not the same now? But its president is William S. Chrisman,
a reputable attorney of Philadelphia,
whose character the North American shows no disposition to assail, for the reason that it is not assailable. We repeat, that the North American is not branding Mr. Chrisman as either a crook or a scoundrel. Is this purely because he is not a candidate for public office in opposition to the North American's choice?"

If the Public Utilities company
were a fraudulent concern as the Philadelphia North American charges,
why is it permitted to continue in business? The fact that it is still in existence with a president at the head
who was in the company when Mr.
Tener was president, goes to show
that there is nothing illegal in connection with it. Then again the North American pictures Frank L.
Smart, the chief promoter of the Public Utilities company, as a promoter

of swindles, and by its evidence
proves Smart to be the chief promoter
of a company that became and still is highly prosperous—the Security
Life and Annuity company. Mr.
Tener had a clear case when he prosecuted the North American for criminal libel.

Two Live Subjects

Contrasting former Congressman
E. F. Acheson's attitude on the tariff question, when the latter served as Congressman for fourteen years previous to 1918, with his present political antics, the Washington Record
says:
"Let us have a joint debate between Ernest F. Acheson, High Tariff
Member of Congress and great protector of the wool industry, and E. F.
Acheson, ex Congressman, ex-Republican, booster of Henry H. Wilson, Bryan Democrat for Congress, who is telling the farmers of Washington county there is nothing in this talk about danger to them in a Democratic tariff for revenue only Congress."

This debate might be also extended to Ernest F. Acheson, practical promoter of politics and E. F. Acheson, reformer and local option apostle, as
to why the local prohibitory
act of Carroll township and Mononacheta was permitted to be repealed.

Hard Knocks for Berry

The Philadelphia Record, the leading Democratic newspaper in the State, repudiates the assertions that Berry will corral the bulk of the Democratic votes at the election, and gives the Keystone candidate for Governor some hard raps. In its issue of yesterday the Record says:

"Local option is not the supreme issue in this campaign, despite the apparent fact that 75,000 to 100,000
votes believe it is."

"When William H. Berry was a candidate for the Democratic nomination at Allentown he solicited the votes of delegates there by the statement that if elected Governor he would not use the influence of the office to promote local option legislation."

"Truth and honor forbid this newspaper to support Berry in preference
to Grim."

"If it were a crime for Senator Quay, a Republican boss, to induce State Treasurer Haywood to place
State money in a bank to be borrowed by his son Richard, it was morally a crime for State Treasurer Berry to give his note for $15,000 to James M. Guffey, a Democratic boss, and have that apparently worthless
piece of paper discounted in a bank
carrying over $700,000 State money.
"The Record never has supported and never will support men of the Berry type for Governor of Pennsylvania."

It will be noticed that the most ardent supporters of Berry are not bringing local option to the front as a paramount issue. Even E. F.
Acheson's Washington Observer and Reporter and Canonsburg Notes are not flashing temperance as an issue in this campaign of personal vituperation
and slander against Congressman
John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for Governor.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

From the fact that Pennsylvania
leads in Sunday School work in the United States, it seems that Ache-

son's oft-repeated assertion that this is a punk old piece of Commonwealth, is slightly varied to suit the occasion.

Who And What Is Berry, The Keystone Candidate, In Gubernatorial Race?

And what manner of man is this William H. Berry, who aspires to the Governorship of Pennsylvania on the Keystone ticket? Since the election is to be held but two weeks from today it is well that voters be enlightened. First of all he is a Democrat of the rampant type. He is the devoted follower of William J. Bryan, subscribing to all the latter's political heresies, a radical of the radicals. One of the chief ends of Mr. Berry's campaign is to divide the Republican vote that a larger number of Democratic representatives may be sent to Congress from Pennsylvania in order that that party shall control the legislative branch of the government. Of course the first act of a Democratic Congress would be to revise the tariff downward with a vengeance to a revenue basis. In such a program Pennsylvania would be the chief sufferer and her workmen and manufacturers would pay penalty in loss of wages and production.

Mr. Berry has been a Greenbacker, Prohibitionist, a Lincoln party man, a Keystoner, a Local Optionist, a Majority ruler and various and sundry
other kinds of a partisan when it
suited his purpose to run for office—
which is his principal occupation—but he is in reality a Democrat of extreme views. That is why his Keystone committee has endorsed so many Democratic candidates for Congress
and the Legislature—anything, any pretense, any trick to defeat the Republican party.

As an ingrate witness Mr. Berry's
contemptuous treatment of his friend Col. James M. Guffey, through whose influence and generous financial assistance Berry was enabled to make the race for a treasurer in 1905. Though receiving a large salary from the Commonwealth Mr. Berry secured Mr.
Guffey's indorsement for a personal loan of $15,000. Then he stood by
and applauded while Bryan had the Guffey delegates thrown out of the Denver convention and Guffey himself was unhonored as a Democratic national committeeman. A party to this crowning humiliation upon his long time patron, Berry has been busy since 1908 in running for the office
and the $5,000 note remains unpaid
with Berry's sponsor, whose affairs
are in a receiver's hands, liable for the Berry obligation.

Mr. Berry has not only been faith-

less to political parties with which he allied himself in the hope of office.
He has not merely been faithless to
ties of friendship and party association. He has also been faithless to the people who placed him in public position. Pretending to lofty plats of reform, he was elected mayor of Chester to clean up the city. In a few months and with no effort to make good his pledges, he saw the state treasury in sight and went after
it, with its pecuniary advantages,
and Chester was left to reform itself.
Mr. Berry was put into the treasury
as a reformer. He was in office 730
days, during nine-tenths of which time he neglected his duties. On only 70 days did he think enough of his responsibilities to the people to go to Harrisburg, and 24 of those 70
days were paydays. The office was conducted in a slipshod fashion by a subordinate while Mr. Berry, in addition to pursuing his private business,
chased the Governorship on one hand
and on the other with Bryan for vice president on the Democratic low tariff ticket of 1908.

Mr. Berry's first act as State Treasurer was to discover a favored depository which was willing to bond him
as treasurer without fee and which would finance a $50,000 bond issue for his brick company. In five months the State deposits, general fund, in that pet institution were raised from $285,000 to $638,000.

Mr. Berry makes pious pretensions to prohibition and local option. Yet he was slick enough to have a solid liquor delegation from one of the largest eastern counties in the Allentown convention to support him for the gubernatorial nomination.

Mr. Berry's spoken word is no better than his written obligation. At Allentown he proffered his congratulations and promised his support to Senator Grim, the Democratic convention's nominee; and immediately set
to work to defeat Grim, whose supporters he has since denounced on every stump.

The last time Mr. Berry ran for office was in 1908, when he stood for the Legislature on four tickets. His home town had sickened of his
vagaries, egotism and insincerity, and it snubbed him under by 4,200 to 2,730. He was repudiated where he was best known and most accurately apprised—Pittsburg Gazette Times.

Buying Food by Mail

A recent development of the mail order business is the buying by mail of food. This system was inaugurated in this section last fall by McCann and Co., of Pittsburgh, who sold 10-pound pails of Butterine at $2.00. The effort was so successful that they have decided to extend their plan this year.

As before, they will send you a 10-pound pail of finest Creamery Butterine at $2.00. As this is regular 23c Butterine, and cheap at that; you save 30c on each order.

Offer No. 2 includes the 10-pound pail of Butterine and 5 lbs of 25c Coffee, which they ship for $3.00, saving you 55c on the order.

The third offer takes 10 lbs of Butterine, 5 lbs of 25c Coffee and 1 lb of 60c Tea all for $3.50, or a saving of 85 cents.

A fourth offer includes the 10 lbs of Butterine and 3 lbs of 40c Tea at $3.00, or a saving of 50c. Take your choice of Ceylon, English Breakfast, Assam, Olong, Japan or Young Hyson teas.

These values are guaranteed and are certain to please you. Send cash for a trial order to McCann and Co., Pittsburgh, Pa. They pay express charges to Charleroi and vicinity.

Lady Wanted

To introduce our very complete Fall line of beautiful wool suitings, wash fabrics, fancy waistings, silks hdkfs, petticoats, etc. Up to date N. Y. City Patterns. Finest line on the market. Dealing direct with the mills you will find our prices low. If others can make $10.00 to $30.00 weekly you can also. Samples, full instructions in neat sample case, shipped express prepaid. No money required. Exclusive territory. Write for particulars. Be first to apply. Standard Dress Goods Company, Dept. 500, Binghamton, N. Y. 6673p

Public Sale

I will offer at public sale at my residence on Saturday, October 29, at 1 p.m. the following household goods: Parlor suit, hall carpet, matting, buffet, porch rocker, gas range, lawn mower, Morris chair and China closet. Terms cash. David Stewart, 327 Crest avenue. 6675

TENER Praised BY FORMER RIVAL

Lieutenant Governor Murphy
 Lauds Republican Nominee.

AND PREDICTS HIS ELECTION

Eloquent Son of Cambria Tells Why Pennsylvania Should Go Republican
 This Year.

One of the most noteworthy speeches of this campaign was made a few nights ago by Lieutenant Governor Robert S. Murphy, who, although he was the only avowed candidate for the gubernatorial nomination, which ultimately went to Congressman John A. Tener, is now one of the most ardent advocates of Mr. Tener's election.

Governor Murphy, who is an eloquent and forcible campaigner, presented a comprehensive review of the past achievements of the Stuart administration, the progress made in the development of all of the departments and the rigorous prosecution of the criminal trials in both criminal and civil actions, and dwelt upon the fact that Mr. Tener is pledged to continue the policies of Edwin S. Stuart.

Governor Murphy, among other things, said:

"In every department of the state government, in the hands of intelligent and capable servants, with the most modern and systematic methods of business in force, and with a record of progress in order, economy and efficiency, the question before the people at the coming election is whether or not they can afford to repudiate the achievements of Governor Stuart and the works of his administration and support either of the Democratic candidates. And, remember, whatever has been accomplished is distinctly a Republican party asset and one which we cheerfully submit in justification of the vote of confidence which we cast."

"In the present juncture of affairs it is not surprising that the election of a Republican is being urged, although a Republican is not a Republican. The public life, as we know it, is a public life. It is not a private life. It is not a life of the few. It is a life of the many."

the other Democratic candidate, the Hon. William H. Berry. Both of these gentlemen, without hesitation, attack everything that is Republican and they stand for a reversal of measures and of administration which are the chief pride and glory of the Republican party. They seek, of course, not to only aid themselves but all other Democrats, especially candidates for congress, which can only be construed as an open attack upon the protective principle which is the breath of life in the nostrils of Pennsylvania, and by which she has advanced to the highest degree of material development. In addition to their endorsement and support of congressional candidates, they are also supporting Democratic candidates for the legislature in the hope of electing a Democratic United States senator.

"Against this well-defined purpose Pennsylvania stands committed, for she believes in the protective principle and in placing those in congress who are sincerely its friends. Any other course would be suicidal, for we cannot, in the interest of manifold industries and of the man who toils, afford to support in the present political crisis the candidates of the Democracy who advocate free trade or favor such a confusing and unsatisfactory schedule as found expression in the Wilson-Gorman bill of the Cleveland administration, which proved so fatal in its consequences to the labor and capital of the country.

Berry as a Bryanite.

"We must recognize in Mr. Berry the only conspicuous representative of Mr. Bryan and his policies now before the people of this state. To every policy advocated by the Nebraskaan he has given loyal allegiance. But Mr. Bryan has practically ceased to be a figure of national importance, and this is due to the fact that all of his so-called policies have been defeated and repudiated by the American people.

"As Mr. Bryan has been repudiated, so do I believe Pennsylvania will refuse to give his lieutenant, Mr. Berry, the support he asks. His speeches upon the stump create sincere doubt as to his soundness and safety, and the belief arises that he is not fitted, either by temperament or judgment, to preside over the destinies of this great commonwealth. There is an absence of self-poise, of self-control in his speech, and of good temper, which are essential to the great responsibilities of a chief magistrate.

"Wide latitude is permitted in the arena of political discussion, but surely Mr. Berry has passed the danger limit, and, as a result, we find the air filled with confusing explanations of his business relations with a leading Democratic politician, none of which seem to be borne out by the facts, and this is followed by an intemperate denunciation of the public press without exception. He not only condemns it as destitute of patriotism and virtue, but proceeds to pass judgment upon all the newspaper men of the state, and without mercy joyfully consigns them to be burned at the stake. "Such a cruel and barbarous punishment is prohibited by the constitution, but this does not seem to matter to Mr. Berry—apparently he would like to be present at the hoped-for event and play the part of chief torch-bearer at the ceremonies.

"These things which an attentive public has learned, together with the astonishing statement that, because of his discovery of the capitol frauds, he was compelled to have a bodyguard in constant attendance about his person in order to prevent his assassination—something which has hitherto been unknown to any one, with perhaps the exception of Mr. Berry—strongly indicate that one of such excitable temperament and susceptible to such beliefs, practices and delusions is not the kind of a man that this state is entitled to have for governor.

"Conditions within the state are eminently satisfactory.

Strong Words For Tener.

"What we need in the high office of governor and the other offices of government in this election is calmness, a judiciousness, a judgment, a man and affairs that is balanced and ripened by experience in a just conception of the duties of government, a keen and sympathetic appreciation of the rights of the citizen, and a comprehensive idea of the manifold interests and elements that enter into the complex life of this great commonwealth. Above all, we need a man safe and sure, and the Republican party has risen equal to the demand.

"We have named as the candidate for governor a man with a true heart, with a son, I brain in a sound body, who has toiled in the workshop and in the mills and is in strong and lasting sympathy with labor; who step by step moved forward and identified himself with the business enterprises of his section, where he has attained a position which commands the individual respect of those who love honesty and believe in genuine hardwork; who has represented his district in the congress of the United States ably and faithfully; whose reputation for integrity is of the highest, and whose Republicanism has always been of the right kind; who is in accord and sympathy with the policies of the Stuart administration, and who has promised the people that when governor he will esteem it a privilege and duty to conduct the state government in accordance with those policies. No man who knows him will doubt his word or will believe that his promise will remain unredempted. I have the honor to know him personally, and I appreciate him as a man of high ideals—pure in thought and speech and unchallengeable in public or private life. The election of the Hon. John A. Tener is assured."

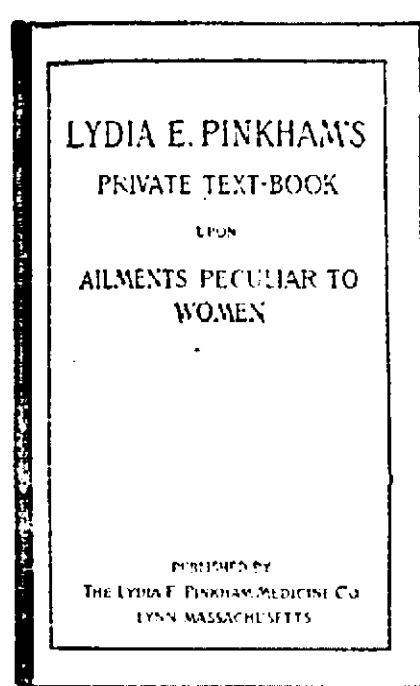

No matter how much it has been abused, we can fix your watch.

Good Thing to Know
If you now own a Hyomei hard rubber inhaler Piper Bros. want you to know that they will sell you a bottle of Hyomei for only 50 cents.
Remember this, all who suffer with catarrh—a bottle of Hyomei, pronounced it High o-mee, is put up in a separate package and sold for 50 cents, to accommodate the vast army of people who already own a Hyomei inhaler.
Piper Bros. will sell it to you at that price and give you the opportunity to begin at once to rid yourself of vile catarrh and the snuffling, hawking and spitting that go with it.
Many people through years of neglect have let catarrh get a strong hold upon you. Some of these people unreasonably think that one bottle of Hyomei ought to cure them.
No matter how chronic your catarrhal troubles, Hyomei is guaranteed by Piper Bros. to cure them, if you give it half a chance. Just breathe it, that's all and its healing, soothing, antiseptic properties will make you feel better in a day.
If you own an inhaler get a 50 cent bottle of Hyomei today. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a $1.00 outfit, which includes inhaler.

PUT BERRY UNDER THE SEARCHLIGHT

Democrats and Prohibitionists Charge Him With Hypocrisy.

HIS VERACITY IS QUESTIONED

And His Administration as State Treasurer Is Made the Subject of a Sharp Attack.

Without the Republicans having called upon to fire a shot, William H. Berry, the Keystone Party nominee for governor, has been fairly riddled by the oratorical batteries of the Prohibitionists and the faction of the Democracy which he deserted when he was defeated in the Allentown convention.

From every side, Berry's reputation for veracity has been attacked. He is accused of falsehood, of breaking his solemn promises and of hypocrisy of the rankest kind.

Not only is his word questioned, but serious allegations regarding his conduct while holding the office of state treasurer are being boldly made by some of the most prominent leaders in the Democratic party.

Hot Democratic Declaration.
Berry's refusal to withdraw from the field, after Grim, the Democratic nominee for governor, had expressed a willingness to comply with the request of prominent Democrats and independent elements, that both Berry and Grim retire to permit of fusion on former Mayor Gutierrez, of Pittsburgh, called forth further bitter denunciations of the Keystone candidate, who was accused of selfishness and being lacking in patriotism.

In an address to the voters of Pennsylvania the Democratic state executive committee has denounced Berry as insincere. Berry's refusal to comply with the request of the representative citizens who asked him to retire to permit of fusion, they say "is conclusive evidence of the fact that his only motive in defeating Mr. Grim and running for governor is to defeat the fusion ticket."

At a mass meeting held in Philadelphia last week, W. K. Meyers, of Harrisburg, in a speech declared that when Berry was elected treasurer a number of prominent Democrats went to him and offered to go on his bond, but he declined the proffer and accepted the services of the president of a Harrisburg trust company. This is the company through which Berry, while he was state treasurer, floated a big loan for the Berry brick yard, and it has been a subject of comment that while Berry was state treasurer the state deposits in this trust company were increased enormously.

Prohibition Nominee on Berry.
In a speech delivered a few nights ago, Madison F. Larkin, Prohibition nominee for governor, paid his respects to Mr. Berry.
"The Keystone Party," said Mr. Larkin, "with W. H. Berry at its head, is nothing more than a lot of disgruntled office-seekers kicked out of other parties. It is nominations and offices they want. They don't want reform! Berry is for temperance today, whiskey tomorrow and local option the next day. The Keystone Party people don't know what they want!"

"Votes for Berry will come from where his is not known," he declared. "His neighbors will not support him because they say he is too tricky. Berry has had his arms up for years, like lightning rods waiting to be struck by all the party conventions in the state. He comes now with his boss-ridden Keystone Party claiming it is an anti-liquor party, which is only a big bluff. He is not sincere. He has no high principles for the good of the whole people, but he aims to satisfy a personal ambition and to satisfy a grudge against his political enemies."

"Berry got the nomination of the Prohibition party before, but he deserted at the most critical moment and went over to support a whiskey candidate and he stumped the state for him just before election. Then he was disgruntled because the Prohibitionists did not honor him with the nomination this year."

Berry's Democratic Allies.
Mr. Berry is a Democrat, but he has no party standing. He does not come as a candidate of a party. He is self-appointed, or, to be more precise, he is the appointee of a handful of self-appointed delegates who gathered together to carry out the Berry wishes and the Berry ambitions.

On the Berry ticket is a host of Democratic candidates for congress and the legislature. These candidates are not there by the virtue of primary elections, but by the grace of the Berry state committee, which assumes to itself the voice of the people.

The Berry pretensions are those of a mere self-seeker. But, then, Berry needs the emoluments of office, for how else is he to make good to the wicked Colonel Guffey, Democrat, "boss," the sums of money borrowed from him?

EDITOR WHO KNOWS CONDITIONS SAYS TENER WILL CARRY ALLEGHENY COUNTY

SPEAKS OF STRAW VOTE

Little Reliance Can be Placed on Method of Obtaining Idea of the Real Sentiment of People

Commenting upon the futility and misleading character of straw votes by Pittsburg newspapers, Editor John O'Donnell of the Uniontown Herald, who was for six years managing editor of the Pittsburg Dispatch, and therefore well acquainted with political conditions in Allegheny county, says: "Including policemen, firemen and city and county employes the payroll in Allegheny county will total over 10,000. Civil service regulations to the contrary notwithstanding, it is fair to assume that 90 per cent. of this payroll will vote the regular Republican ticket. It is also fair to assume that the collateral payroll vote will amount to as much more, thus giving the Republican ticket a total payroll vote of about 20,000 and this is a vote that is not getting representation in the straw predictions."

"The total vote in Allegheny county at the last Presidential election was 121,905. The total vote in the same county at the next election will scarcely be over 100,000. With 20 per cent of this vote represented by the direct and collateral Republican payroll vote cast for the Republican ticket, and with 10,000 more added as the result of effective political organization, the finish of Mr. Berry in Allegheny county won't be difficult to figure out, in view of the fact that in a total straw vote of 8,946, Berry leads with a margin of but 29. Four years ago, in Allegheny county, Stuart had a plurality of 29,815 over Lewis Emery, who was on the Democratic, Lincoln Republican and three other tickets. In that year there was a total vote cast in that county of 92,755. Mr. Tener will carry Allegheny county this year by a plurality of 30,000 in round numbers."

FIRST ATTRACTION ON THURSDAY NIGHT

The first entertainment of the Citizens Lecture Course attractions takes place at School Hall Thursday evening, when Ross Crane will appear. Crane is a versatile entertainer. He modles clay and draws cartoons, then for a change in the monotony, plays the piano or recites. The entertainment, as well as all others of the season will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. All the seats in School Hall have been reserved and even chairs are called into requisition. Standing room promises to be at a premium.

Hallowe'en Is Not Here Yet

Burgess Risbeck Tells Celebrators Not to Try to Hasten Things

To the Public:
As the local committee has arranged to give the fun loving public a good time on Hallowe'en night, when all will be privileged to masquerade, parade the streets and indulge in harmless public merriment, all vandalism and mischief, both before and on that night, will not be tolerated. Any one marking windows with soap or chalk, ringing door bells, tapping on windows, jumping and rapping on porches, and otherwise annoying people will be promptly arrested and dealt with according to law. The police have stringent orders to arrest all such offenders.

LAUGH AT ACHESON

Farmers of Lone Pine District for J. K. Tener

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE BY FIRE

A small fire occurred at Donora last night in two rooms of the Whiteledge building on McKean avenue between Seventh and Eighth streets, which did damage to the extent of five hundred dollars. When the fire was discovered, it was impossible to get the rooms opened and smoke and flames worked havoc before the volunteer firemen were able to extinguish the blaze.

STRAW VOTE SHOWS SENTIMENT FOR TENER NEARLY FOUR TO ONE

A man representing the Pittsburg Dispatch, was in Charleroi some time last evening and took a straw vote in some of the business houses on McKean avenue and Fallowfield avenues and from pedestrians on Fifth street and McKean avenue with the result that Hon. J. K. Tener was shown to be in the lead among the few who voted. An interesting feature was noted that whereas the Tener men calmly marked their ballots and dropped them into the box unfolded, the Berry men sheepishly folded theirs concealing their sentiment from the onlookers.

RIVER IS SATURATED WITH BOILER DESTROYING ACID

In Worse Condition Now Than It Has Been For Months as a Result of Discharge From Mines

BOATS SENT TO REPAIR SHOPS OFTEN

At no time this year has the river been in a worse condition from acid than it is at present, and the low water is to blame. The water is green from the effects of the large amount of acid contained in it.

The average stage during the past three months has been about nine feet one inch. There is little water going over the dams and what is in the pools is being saturated more and more with acid with which comes from the mines. This is especially destructive to boilers and such is the extent of the damage done that it is necessary that repairs be made nearly every ten days or two weeks. In this way the expense is greatly increased to the companies operating boats along the river.

Things are quiet in the Pittsburg harbor as regards shipments of coal. The rains this month have fallen far short from the needed quantity to raise the Ohio river to a coal shipping stage. The trade is more brisk along the local river.

BANQUET WILL BE HELD NEXT MONTH

Postponed Affair of Douglas Alumni Event of Near Future

Invitations were sent out today by a social committee of Douglas College Alumni association for a banquet to be held at the Hotel Monier on November 10. The banquet was to have been held last June, but owing to the sudden death of one of the members of the association, Leroy A. Hamilton, of Racoe, was postponed. A program is being arranged to be rendered by members of the association in connection with the affair. One hundred and ten invitations have been issued. Those of the social committee are: Miss Clara Beigel, Miss Eva Louttit and Miss Velma Carothers. The alumni association officers are: President, J. Russell Carroll; vice president, John Kline; secretary, Frank Thompson; treasurer, Miss May Barth.

PITTSBURG STEEL TO USE MILLIONS FOR ADDITIONS TO MONESSEN PLANT

Building Brisk On Lock Hill

Many Structures Erected During the Past Summer At That Place

During the past summer North Charleroi has been the scene of much building operations, the number of structures erected, beating out Charleroi. On the hill, known as Lockview, there were 13 houses built this summer and two or three are going up now. In the down town section there was little going on in the way of new buildings, but many improvements were made there among which was the laying of considerable cement sidewalk. Many lots are being sold in the hill district at North Charleroi and it is proving a desirable residence section.

BUSINESS INCREASES

Railroad Benefitted By Erection of Bridge

The Monessen-Charleroi bridge has been the means of increasing trade to the Pennsylvania railroad from their North Charleroi station, and likewise to the Adams Express company, who since the bridge was built has been conducting a service in Monessen. The freight handling at North Charleroi by the Pennsylvania railroad since the erection of the bridge, has increased two fold or more. The Adams Express company has a Monessen wagon and an agent at that place, all the trade being handled from North Charleroi.

Funeral Thursday

The funeral of Chester Addison Clark, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clark, of 922 McKean avenue, will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment will be in the Monongahela cemetery. The parents and three sisters survive.

Rummage Sale

The ladies of the First Presbyterian church will hold their fourth annual Rummage Sale in the store room, corner of Fourth street and McKean avenue. Hundreds of useful articles will be on sale at very reasonable prices. The sale lasts for three days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. 66712

WORK TO BEGIN SHORTLY

For the purpose of making extensive additions and improvements to their Monessen plant, the plans for which are in the hands of the architect, it is said, an appropriation of $5,000,000 has been authorized by the Pittsburg Steel company. The money is to be forthcoming shortly, and according to rumor the work will start shortly. For a year or so the officials at Monessen have been endeavoring to secure the appropriation granted, and only day before yesterday, it is understood, were these efforts finally crowned with success. The additions among which will be four blast furnaces, will mostly be installed at the lower end of the Monessen mill, and operated in connection with the billet, wire and rod mill, and the other plants there. Improvements it is said will be made throughout the entire plant.

The new additions will mean much to Monessen and vicinity, although not many new men will be employed there in the operation of them. The move to increase the plant to the extent of $5,000,000 is an index to the prosperous conditions generally, and the confidence of continued prosperity.

IMPROVEMENTS FOR ROSCOE BOROUGH

The Roscoe council is asking for bids for the laying of 800 feet of stone sidewalk in the borough, on Good street, together with 100 feet of crossing stone. The contract is to be let on November 2, and it is understood that the work is to be done as soon as possible. The move is one being made by Roscoe for the improvement of the borough.

North Charleroi

Miss Ada Wolfe is in Pittsburg this week attending the National Luther League convention.

A Clear Case

The Uniontown Herald pertinently
remarks: "If the Public Utilities
company were a fraudulent concern
when Mr. Tener served as its president, is it not the same now? But its president is William S. Chrisman,
a reputable attorney of Philadelphia,
whose character the North American
shows no disposition to assail, for the reason that it is not assailable. We repeat, that the North American is not branding Mr. Chrisman as either
a crook or a scoundrel. Is this purely
because he is not a candidate for public office in opposition to the North
American's choice?"

If the Public Utilities company
were a fraudulent concern as the Philadelphia North American charges,
why is it permitted to continue in business? The fact that it is still in existence with a president at the head
who was in the company when Mr.
Tener was president, goes to show
that there is nothing illegal in connection with it. Then again the North American pictures Frank L.
Smart, the chief promoter of the Public Utilities company, as a promoter

of swindles, and by its evidence
proves Smart to be the chief promoter
of a company that became and still
is highly prosperous—the Security
Life and Annuity company. Mr.
Tener had a clear case when he prosecuted the North American for criminal
libel.

Two Live Subjects

Contrasting former Congressman
E. F. Acheson's attitude on the tariff
question, when the latter served as Congressman for fourteen years previous to 1913, with his present political antics, the Washington Record
says:

"Let us have a joint debate between Ernest F. Acheson, High Tariff
Member of Congress and great protector of the wool industry, and E. F.
Acheson, ex Congressman, ex-Republican, booster of Henry H. Wilson, Bryan Democrat for Congress, who is
telling the farmers of Washington county there is nothing in the tariff
about danger to them in a Democratic
tariff for revenue only Congress."

This debate might be also extended
to Ernest F. Acheson, practical promoter of politics and E. F. Acheson,
reformer and local option apostle, as
to why the local prohibitory
act of Carroll township and Mononahela was permitted to be repealed.

Hard Knocks for Berry

The Philadelphia Record, the leading Democratic newspaper in the State, repudiates the assertions that Berry will corral the bulk of the Democratic votes at the election, and
gives the Keystone candidate for Governor some hard raps. In its
issue of yesterday the Record says:

"Local option is not the supreme
issue in this campaign, despite the
apparent fact that 75,000 to 100,000
votes believe it is."

"When William H. Berry was a candidate for the Democratic nomination at Allentown he solicited the votes of delegates there by the statement that if elected Governor he would not use the influence of the office to promote local option legislation."

"Truth and honor forbid this newspaper to support Berry in preference
to Grim."

"If it were a crime for Senator
Quay, a Republican boss, to induce
State Treasurer Haywood to place
State money in a bank to be borrowed by his son Richard, it was
morally a crime for State Treasurer
Berry to give his note for $15,000 to James M. Guffey, a Democratic boss,
and have that apparently worthless
piece of paper discounted in a bank
carrying over $200,000 State money."

"The Record never has supported
and never will support men of the Berry type for Governor of Pennsylvania."

It will be noticed that the most
ardent supporters of Berry are not
bringing local option to the front as
a paramount issue. Even E. F.
Acheson's Washington Observer and Reporter and Canonsburg Notes are
not flashing temperance as an issue in
this campaign of personal vituperation
and slander against Congressman
John K. Tener, the Republican candidate for Governor.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

From the fact that Pennsylvania
leads in Sunday School work in the United States, it seems that Ache-

son's oft-repeated assertion that this
is a punk old piece of Commonwealth, is slightly varied to suit the
occasion.

Who And What Is Berry, The Keystone Candidate, In Gubernatorial Race?

And what manner of man is this William H. Berry, who aspires to the Governorship of Pennsylvania on the Keystone ticket? Since the election
is to be held but two weeks from
today it is well that voters be enlightened. First of all he is a Democrat
of the rampant type. He is the devoted follower of William J. Bryan,
subscribing to all the latter's political heresies, a radical of the radicals. One of the chief ends of Mr. Berry's campaign is to divide the Republican vote that a larger number
of Democratic representatives may be
sent to Congress from Pennsylvania in order that that party shall
control the legislative branch of the government. Of course the first act
of a Democratic Congress would be to repeal the tariff downward with a vengeance to a revenue basis. In such a program Pennsylvania would be the chief sufferer in a working men and manufacturers would pay tripenity in loss of wages and reduction.

Mr. Berry has been a Greenbacker, Prohibitionist, a Lincoln party man, a Keystoner, a Local Optionist, a Majority ruler and various and sundry
other kinds of a partisan when it
suited his purpose to run for office—
which is his principal occupation—but
he is in reality a Democrat of extra views. That is why his Keystone committee has endorsed so many Democratic candidates for Congress
and the Legislature—anything, any
pretense, any trick to defeat the Republican party.

As an ingrate witness Mr. Berry's
contemptuous treatment of his friend
Col. James M. Guffey, through whose influence and generous financial assistance Berry was enabled to make the race for a treasurer in 1905. Though receiving a large salary from the Commonwealth Mr. Berry secured Mr.
Guffey's indorsement for a personal
loan of $15,000. Then he stood by
and applauded while Bryan had the Guffey delegates thrown out of the Denver convention and Guffey himself was unhorsed as a Democratic national committeeman. A party to this crowning humiliation upon his
long time patron, Berry has been busy
since 1908 in running for the office
and the $5,000 note remains unpaid
with Berry's sponsor, whose affairs
are in a receiver's hands, liable for
the Berry obligation.

Mr. Berry has not only been faith-

less to political parties with which
he allied himself in the hope of office.
He has not merely been faithless to
ties of friendship and party association. He has also been faithless to
the people who placed him in public position. Pretending to lofty pls of reform, he was elected mayor of Chester to clean up the city. In a few months and with no effort to make good his pledges, he saw the
state treasury in sight and went after
it, with its pecuniary advantages,
and Chester was left to reform itself
Mr. Berry was put into the treasury
as a reformer. He was in office 730
days, during nine-tenths of which time he neglected his duties. On only 70 days did he think enough of
his responsibilities to the people to go to Harrisburg, and 24 of those 70
days were paydays. The office was conducted in a slipshod fashion by a subordinate while Mr. Berry, in addition to pursuing his private business,
chased the Governorship on one hand
and on the other with Bryan for vice president on the Democratic low tariff
ticket of 1908.

Mr. Berry's first act as State Treasurer was to discover a favored deposi-
tory which was willing to bond him
as treasurer without fee and which
would finance a $50,000 bond issue
for his brick company. In five
months the State deposits, general
fund, in that pet institution were raised from $285,000 to $388,000.

Mr. Berry makes pious pretensions
to prohibition and local option. Yet
he was slick enough to have a solid
liquor delegation from one of the
largest eastern counties in the Allen-
town convention to support him for
the gubernatorial nomination.

Mr. Berry's spoken word is no better than his written obligation. At Allentown he proffered his congratulations and promised his support to Senator Grim, the Democratic conven-
tion's nominee; and immediately set
to work to defeat Grim, whose supporters he has since denounced on every
stump.

The last time Mr. Berry ran for office was in 1908, when he stood for the Legislature on four tickets. His home town had sickened of his
vagaries, egotism and insincerity,
and it snowed him under by 4,200 to 2,730. He was repudiated where he was best known and most accurately
appraised—Pittsburg Gazette Times.

WE'VE GOT HIM "ON THE RUN"!

Every tailor in town is scratching his head and wondering where our twenty-five dollar "High-Art" Suit gets its fifty-dollar look from. If $25 is more than you care to pay for your new suit, we've a "purse-tickler" at $20. The fabric may not be so fine, but the style and tailoring are every bit as good in our "High-Art" eighteen dollar suit. At $15 our "Low-Cost Special." It's the biggest value that ever made a little price puff with pride. All the other spruce-up helps from head-to-foot for senior or junior. Come in and try on one of those LSystem Overcoats the boys are all talking about. It won't cost you a cent to look—we won't ask you to buy, "the coats will".

CATARRH SUFFERERS

Good Thing to Know

If you now own a Hyomei hard rubber inhaler Piper Bros. want you to know that they will sell you a bottle of Hyomei for only 50 cents. Remember this, all who suffer with catarrh—a bottle of Hyomei, pronounced it High o' me, is put up in a separate package and sold for 50 cents, to accommodate the vast army of people who already own a Hyomei inhaler. Piper Bros. will sell it to you at that price and give you the opportunity to begin at once to rid yourself of vile catarrh and the snuffling, hawking and spitting that go with it. Many people through years of neglect have let catarrh get a strong hold upon you. Some of these people unreasonably think that one bottle of Hyomei ought to cure them. No matter how chronic your catarrhal troubles, Hyomei is guaranteed by Piper Bros. to cure them, if you give it half a chance. Just breathe it, that's all and its healing, soothing, antiseptic properties will make you feel better in a day. If you own an inhaler get a 50 cent bottle of Hyomei today. If you do not own a Hyomei inhaler, ask for a $1.00 outfit, which includes inhaler. Belts by the Pound. A western senator of ample physical proportions was endeavoring to obtain a belt at a Washington haberdashery. He was having a difficult time in selecting a belt whose design struck his fancy as well as of proper requirements for his girth. "How much is that one?" he demanded of the clerk, who was entirely unaware of the distinguished character of the patron. "That is $4," said the salesman. "Four dollars?" exclaimed the senator. "Isn't that an awful price for a belt?" "Yes, sir," admitted the man behind the counter. "But you see, sir, after they get into the regular surcingle size we charge for 'em by the pound."—Chicago Record-Herald.

PUT BERRY UNDER THE SEARCHLIGHT

HIS VERACITY IS QUESTIONED

And His Administration as State Treasurer Is Made the Subject of a Sharp Attack.

Without the Republicans being called upon to fire a shot, William H. Berry, the Keystone Party nominee for governor, has been fairly riddled by the oratorical batteries of the Prohibitionists and the faction of the Democracy which he deserted when he was defeated in the Allentown convention.

From every side, Berry's reputation for veracity has been attacked. He is accused of falsehood in breaking his solemn promises and of hypocrisy of the rankest kind.

Not only is his word questioned, but serious allegations regarding his conduct while holding the office of state treasurer are being boldly made by some of the most prominent leaders in the Democratic party.

Hot Democratic Declaration. Berry's refusal to withdraw from the field, after Grim, the Democratic nominee for governor, had expressed a willingness to comply with the request of prominent Democrats and independent candidates, that both Berry and Grim retire to permit of fusion on former Mayor Gutrie, of Pittsburgh, called forth further bitter denunciations of the Keystone candidate, who was accused of selfishness and being lacking in patriotism.

In an address to the voters of Pennsylvania the Democratic state executive committee has denounced Berry as insincere. Berry's refusal to comply with the request of the representative citizens who asked him to retire to permit of fusion, they say "is conclusive evidence of the fact that his only motive in refusing to do so is to defeat Mr. Grim and himself."

Refers to Mr. Berry as "the least not above the people" and "the people's good government from the public press of the state." "In an important position to financial institutions in the promotion of his own enterprise."

At a mass meeting held in Philadelphia last week, W. K. Meyers, of Harrisburg, in a speech declared that when Berry was elected treasurer a number of prominent Democrats went to him and offered to go on his bond, but he declined the proffer and accepted the services of the president of a Harrisburg trust company. This is the company through which Berry, while he was state treasurer, floated a big loan for the Berry brick yard, and it has been a subject of comment that while Berry was state treasurer the state deposits in this trust company were increased enormously.

Prohibition Nominee on Berry. In a speech delivered a few nights ago, Madison F. Larkin, Prohibition nominee for governor, paid his respects to Mr. Berry.

"The Keystone Party," said Mr. Larkin, "with W. H. Berry at its head, is nothing more than a lot of disgruntled office-seekers kicked out of other parties. It is nominations and offices they want. They don't want reform. Berry is for temperance today, whisky tomorrow and local option the next day. The Keystone Party people don't know what they want."

"Votes for Berry will come from where his is not known," he declared. "His neighbors will not support him because they say he is too tricky. Berry has had his arms up for years, like lightning rods waiting to be struck by all the party conventions in the state. He comes now with his boss-ridden Keystone Party claiming it is an anti-liquor party, which is only a big bluff. He is not sincere. He has no high principles for the good of the whole people, but he aims to satisfy a personal ambition and to satisfy a grudge against his political enemies."

"Berry got the nomination of the Prohibition party before, but he deserted at the most critical moment and went over to support a whisky candidate and he stumped the state for him just before election. Then he was disgruntled because the Prohibitionists did not honor him with the nomination this year."

Berry's Democratic Allies. Mr. Berry is a Democrat, but he has no party standing. He does not come as a candidate of a party. He is self-appointed, or, to be more precise, he is the appointee of a handful of self-appointed delegates who gathered together to carry out the Berry wishes and the Berry ambitions.

On the Berry ticket is a host of Democratic candidates for congress and the legislature. These candidates are not there by the virtue of primary elections, but by the grace of the Berry state committee, which assumes to itself the voice of the people.

The Berry pretensions are those of a mere self-seeker. But, then, Berry needs the emoluments of office, for how else is he to make good to the wicked Colonel Guffey, Democrat, "boss," the sums of money borrowed from him?
